MOTION BY SUPERVISOR ZEV YAROSLAVSKY

AUGUST 29, 2006

Members and guests of the Metivta, a Jewish contemplative community, based in West Los Angeles will be observing Rosh Hashanah (Jewish New Year) High Holiday with services near the Venice Beach parking lot on Washington Boulevard on Sunday, September 24, 2006 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., the second day of Rosh Hashanah.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors waive the parking fees in the amount of $250.00 for approximately 25 vehicles on September 24, 2006 for use of the Washington Boulevard Parking Lot in Venice Beach by members attending these tashlich services and direct any correspondence to:
